Home Occupation Classifications as per (Zoning Bylaw No. 900, 2014)

4.2 HOME OCCUPATION

4.2.1 All home occupations, where permitted by this Bylaw, are subject to the following conditions:

- a) be accessory to the principal use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes.
- b) be carried out wholly within the dwelling unit or within an accessory building.
- c) produce no offensive noise, smoke, dust, odour, glare, or electrical interference.
- d) be carried on with no exterior indication of the home occupation as a result of outdoor storage, the display of goods or services or lighting; with the exception of signage which complies with regulations of this Bylaw and the Sign Bylaw.
- e) not use materials or processes that produce flammable or explosive vapours or gases under ordinary temperatures.
- f) not involve the sale or display of any goods, wares, merchandise, or foodstuffs which are not produced or made on the lot.
- g) not involve storage of materials outside the dwelling unit or accessory building, which are used directly for the processing or result from the processing of any product of the home occupation.
- h) not require delivery of materials or commodities in such bulk or quantity as to require more than one delivery per week by commercial vehicles or trailers.
- i) not generate any increase in traffic or on-street vehicle parking in excess of that which is ordinarily generated by the residential use of the lot on which the home occupation is located.

- k) not constitute an agriculture use for purposes of property assessment.
- l) not permitted on a lot with a small daycare, a large daycare use, or any facility licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act. The following uses are specifically prohibited as a home occupation:

Storm Water Discharge Registration

Certain businesses are subject to a Code of Practice in accordance with the Storm Water Regulation Bylaw. These businesses include:

- Automotive operations, such as vehicles sales, repair, fueling, and carwash.
- Outdoor storage yards, which means storing material or equipment outside of an enclosed building.

These businesses must indicate on the business license application form which of the above applies to them. The Town keeps a registry of all businesses and properties that are subject to a storm water discharge Code of Practice in order to help proactively keep our waterways and drainage systems clean and functioning properly.
